Dr. Edward L. Allen
Director, Office of Economic Research
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Dr. Allen:

It is a real pleasure to express the appreciation of the students and faculty of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces for the outstanding performances of the panelists which you provided for the seminars dealing with our study of industries abroad.

A major feature of the Industrial College is the opportunity afforded the students to discuss subjects important to our national security with experts in their respective fields. We are thus indebted to
